

Texas 4-H Record Keeping System:

Recordbook Objectives

The following objectives will be used for helping you determine your goal and process in a project. These objectives can be used for your record keeping and will be used as you prepare a recordbook.

These objectives may be revised periodically to address issues affecting youth development.

The objectives are to be used in setting goals for project experiences, leadership, community service and awards. They will be reflected throughout a 4-H members recordbook.

1. Attain a broad knowledge of 4-H projects and activities and the way they improve family and community life.
2. Acquire life skills essential for becoming an active, skilled, productive and responsible citizen.
3. Adopt and apply the latest practices and research findings to everyday living.
4. Use all 4-H training and experiences in choosing and preparing for a job.
5. Develop leadership skills that promote positive youth development
