Fashion Show Categories For Construction:

Junior and Intermediate youth who are competing in the Construction portion of Fashion Show, will only be required to sew/construct one piece of their outfit.

● Every Day Living – Includes casual sportswear, weekend-wear, sleepwear, clothing for school, casual after-school events, or hanging out with friends.

● ReFashion – The result of modifying existing clothing or fabric item (such as table cloth or curtain) into something more fashionable. The mail purpose of ReFashion is creativity, as well as sewing skills. The member designs and sews a wearable garment from previously used garments or fabric item. The completed garment is different from its original use, not just an alteration. (Examples: neck ties sewn together to form a skirt, or taking old t-shirts and making them into a skirt).

● Semi-Formal to Formal – Entry must be designed for semi-formal to formal occasions and made from fabrics intended for the same. Original material must be fabric and not from recycled items.
  ○ Juniors and intermediates:
  *Examples of items that can be entered in this category; this is a category that is ideal for award interview attire, Sunday dress, etc.

● Theatre/Costume – Garment intended for use as a costume, which would include stage production. May be sewn from fabric or from another garment. These garments may be unusual or innovative materials; imaginative but wearable.

Fashion Show Categories For Buying:
● Business/Interview Attire – Entry should be an outfit you would wear for a job interview, scholarship interview, job fair, other professional event.
  - Professional – This is more traditional, conservative approach (e.g., business suit or blazer, tie and dress slacks for men; business suit, pantsuit, or jacket and dress for women) and may vary by employer or industry
  - Business Casual – This trend is more relaxed and comfortable but demonstrates good judgment in choices and displays a neat appearance (e.g., polo shirt, shirt with a collar or sweater, khakis or other slacks, dress or casual leather shoes for men and women; moderate length dress or skirt for women)
  - For Juniors and Intermediates - this is a category that is ideal for award interview attire, Sunday dress, etc.

● Fantastic Fashion under $25 – This category is designed to expand the 4-H member’s shopping experience to include different shopping venues. Outfits must be purchased at a garage sale, consignment store, Goodwill, Salvation Army, or other retail business. Receipts are required for everything that is visible during the interview, except shoes. Receipts for garage sales can be hand written. This includes jewelry and accessories. Do not need to account for sales tax.

● Semi-Formal to Formal – Entry must be designed for semi-formal to formal occasions and made from fabrics intended for the same. This includes men’s suits and tuxedos and women’s dressy dresses, formal gowns, wedding dresses, and bridesmaid dresses.
• Special Interest – Entry should be a specific outfit that you NEED to know how to purchase wisely. Entry should be something that reflects a special interest of the participant, such as equestrian clothing and riding apparel, dance costumes, hiking clothing, or rock climbing clothing.

RULES:
We will follow the State 4-H Fashion Show rules for seniors. The 2016 State Fashion Show Packet is posted on the website at http://fcs.tamu.edu/clothing/4h/packet/.

Fashion Storyboard
• 2016 Design Brief: #4HFashionStoryboard2016
  ° Social media has become a stage to not only set fashion trends, but to launch designers. Social media outlets such as, Facebook, Pinterest, Twitter, and YouTube are easily accessible, and conversational in nature. Fashion trends are created through social media, the trend is not “imposed” on the audience, but instead, it is made available for the audience, and the audience will have the freedom to adopt it or grasp onto part of it. Create your own design and create a storyboard that will help it go viral. 4-H members may create ONE fashion storyboard to enter in the County contest. There are five (5) categories in which to enter. Category descriptions are listed on the state website http://fcs.tamu.edu/clothing/4h/packet/.
• There will be three age divisions for Fashion Storyboard: Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors
• Please refer to the Fashion Storyboard rules and guidelines available on the state website at http://fcs.tamu.edu/clothing/4h/packet/. We will follow the state rules.

Textile Show:
• Participants will be divided into the three age groups: Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors.
• Each 4-H member may enter one item in each of the 6 categories for a maximum of six (6) entries per person.
• See Textile Show section of this letter for more details.

Duds to Dazzle
• Participants will be divided into three age groups: Juniors, Intermediates, and Seniors.
• Teams can consist of three to five members.
• There are three categories per age division: Wearable, Accessory/Jewelry, and Non-Wearable. Category descriptions are listed on the state website at http://fcs.tamu.edu/clothing/4h/packet/.
• Sewing kit - Each team must supply their own equipment for the competition. Teams may bring only the supplies listed in the sewing kit section. Sewing kits will be checked by contest officials as teams check in for the contest. Any extra equipment will be confiscated, and the team may be disqualified.

More details and a list of the sewing kit can be found enclosed.

Required Paperwork For County Contest:
Fashion Show: (a member may compete in only ONE category for County Fashion Show)
Juniors & Intermediates:
