

Bexar County 4-H Ambassador Program

Are you interested in becoming a Bexar County 4-H advocate and leader?

Would you like to develop and build your communication skills?

If so, you are a perfect fit for our Bexar County 4-H Ambassador Program!

ROLE OF THE BEXAR COUNTY 4-H AMBASSADORS:

4-H Ambassadors are a special group of selected youth who represent and promote the Bexar County 4-H program and Texas 4-H programs at various local/regional events. Ambassadors are role models for other youth. They are respectful, polite and helpful with other 4-H members, adult leaders, and Texas A&M AgriLife Extension staff. Ambassadors are teachers. They will have the opportunity to assist in educating youth and adults about the 4-H program. The Bexar County 4-H Ambassador program strives to promote 4-H and encourages youth to become actively involved in their communities. The Bexar County 4-H Ambassadors volunteer their time and have the opportunity to enhance their advocacy and leadership skills.

AMBASSADOR WILL BE EXPECTED TO COMMIT TO THE FOLLOWING RESPONSIBILITIES:

- ◆ Represent the Bexar County 4-H Ambassador program at a minimum of 10 (local, district, or state) events during the year serving. Ambassadors must assist, teach, and/or promote 4-H at these events.
- ◆ Submit an event summary after each program attended to the 4-H County Extension Agent.
- ◆ Organize and execute 1 community service project as a 4-H Ambassador team.
- ◆ Assist with County Silent Auction by picking up 3 donations.
- ◆ Attend 6 Ambassador meetings (every 2 months) during the year serving.
Minimum of 2 absences allowed.
- ◆ Develop 1 personal testimonial about 4-H and its positive impact for submission on the web, newspaper or other local media.
- ◆ Regularly maintain and wear the 4-H ambassador shirt and nametag while serving as a representative at events.
- ◆ Be on time to all scheduled commitments and serve as a positive role model to all youth.
